

Conference

Anti-Gypsyism and the Holocaust: Remembering the past and shaping the future

MemoROM project closing event

30 January 2015

EESC, 2 rue Van Maerlant - 1040 Brussels, (room VMA 3, 2nd floor, Van Maerlant building)

AGENDA

09:00-09:30	Registration
09:30-10:30	Opening session: welcome and introduction Ivan Ivanov, ERIO Executive Director Henri Malosse, EESC President Salla Saastamoinen, European Commission, DG Justice, Director for Equality Soraya Post, MEP
10:30-11:00	The MemoROM project: objectives, main activities and results of the project
11:00-11:30	Coffee break

11:30-12:30 Panel 1 - Preserving survivor's memories

Rita Prigmore, Sinti survivor and activist, Germany
Lydia Chagoll, Jewish survivor and Filmmaker/Author, Belgium
Discussion

12:30 - 13:30 Panel 2 - Anti-Gypsyism and anti-Roma sentiments on the rise: what can institutions do?

Stephanos Stavros, Executive Secretary, ECRI, Council of Europe
Pavel Tychtl, DG HOME, Europe for Citizens Programme, European Commission
Gabriella Nagy, Diplomat, Embassy of Hungary to Belgium and Luxembourg
Discussion

13:30 -14:30 Lunch

14:30 - 15:30 Panel 3- Anti-Gypsyism and anti-Roma sentiments on the rise: what can experts do?

Professor Rainer Schulze, University of Essex, UK
Professor Hristo Kyuchukov, Roma Center for Intercultural Dialog, Germany
Discussion

15:30 - 16:30 Panel 4- Anti-Gypsyism and anti-Roma sentiments on the rise: what can civil society do?

Robin Sclafani, Director, A Jewish Contribution to an Inclusive Europe (CEJI)
Vicente Rodriguez, ternYpe representative
Julie Pascoët, Policy Officer, European Network Against Racism (ENAR)
Domino Kai, member of ERIO General Assembly
Discussion

16:30 Closing remarks by Ronald Lucardie, President of ERIO Board and EUNOMAD